

BREAST CANCER: SEXUAL HEALTH & RELATIONSHIPS

According to the National Cancer Institute as many as 50% of women who have undergone breast cancer treatment experience sexual health dysfunction and its impact on intimate relationships. You are not alone! Come join us as we share tools that can help build your sexual and relationship health.

Tuesday, November 7

Light lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m.

Presentation from noon to 1 p.m.

Kool Family Community Center

200 W. Michigan Ave., Battle Creek

Presented by Lindsay Barton, LMSW and Tim Sparling, DNP, RN, AGPCNP-BC, ACHPN.

Registration is required for this free event. Call (269) 441-0948 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. or visit bronsonhealth.com/classes.

